A MOST UNPOETIC STORY.

HOW THE DISPENSER OF ART GOT HIS BLUFF CALLED.

An Insignificant Tale in Which a Large Number of Court Decisions, a Bluffer, Two City Ordinances and a Few Other Elements Perform a Conspicuous Role—The End Thereof.

This morning's papers, in giving the reports of the Supreme Court decisions, have this: "City of Greensboro vs. Cardwell, no error."

That looks tame, but thereby hangs a tale, embracing in its elements so high and useful a thing as the interstate commerce law of the United States, two ordinances of the City of Greensboro, two decisions by the Supreme Court of North Carolina, the sojourning of a peripatetic art vender in jail, a habeas corpus proceedings, a trip or two to Raleigh, a game of bluff and the calling of the same, and finally, the addition of some dollars and cents to the exchequer of the borough of Green. It covers a period of more than a year. It runs thus:

There was an old law in this town which enjoined men not to peddle pictures and picture frames without contributing to the city's already hoarded millions a few additional dollars in the way of a license. A stranger came within our gates and proceeded, without leave or license, to dispose of sundry works of art incased in ornamental and highly wrought frames. When his actions became known to a policeman that functionary commanded him to desist on the penalty of being made to pay a fine and the license too. The vender of artistic effects virtually replied by his actions that he didn't care a darn for the policeman, the tax, nor the Gate City, to which all roads lead. Whereupon the minion of the law suppressed his liberty and proceeded to govern him without his consent. The Mayor demurred in behalf of the city, the sum it had been decreed that such commissaries of art should pay. The latter refused, carried his case to court, and the August Supreme Court of the State, said the law was unconstitutional as a violation of the interstate law.

Wherefore, Mayor Taylor had the town ordinance changed so as to read to make it unlawful for any one to deliver the pictures without having paid the tax. This was a centre punch for the art vendors, but they didn't catch on to it. Others of them came and said that they could do as it had been done before. One, Mr. Cardwell, was arrested, and contemptuously refused to pay, and dared his Honor, the Mayor, to put him in jail. His Honor straightway proceeded to deposit him there. He sued a writ of HABEAS CORPUS before Judge Shaw, but the Judge denied it. Then he was willing to put up a bond sufficient to cover the tax and to pay the cost, and so take his case to the Supreme Court. He did so. The court sustained the writ. Now the city takes the money, and the man who kicked against the tax and spent the night in jail and tried to bluff the town, has long since gone to other towns to dispose the beneficent influence of art.

A Narrow Escape.

A young man riding a mule had a close call yesterday afternoon at the railway crossing near Morrison Bros' store. He neither saw nor heard an approaching engine until he was upon the track and the engine within a few feet of him. But for the timely action of the engineer in stopping there would have been a serious accident. As it was his muleship deposited the young man in the middle of the street. A watchman is needed at this crossing.

A Prosperity Wheat Yield.

Mr. R. W. Books was out in the country yesterday and stopped at Mr. Ragan's, west of town. Noticing a wheat drill under the shed he inquired of Mr. Ragan about his wheat crop. The reply was a surprise. He found that Mr. Ragan had planted only six bushels of wheat but had gathered 145 bushels. Mr. Ragan figured that it cost him 35 cents a bushel, and it now being worth 75 cents, there is a fine margin of profit. More than can be shown in most any other business.

BONDS TO BE SOLD DECEMBER 14.

That Date has Been Decided Upon for the Reception of Sealed Bids for the $135,000 Waterworks, Electric Light and Street Improvement Bonds—Indications That Good Prices Will Obtain.

December the 14th, $135,000 worth of bonds of the city of Greensboro will be sold, in accordance with a resolution passed by the Aldermen in September. Of these, $100,000 will be devoted to the waterworks, $25,000 to an electric light plant, and $10,000 to street improvement. This date for the opening and acceptance of sealed bids for the bonds was settled on with the advice of Mr. Clark Williams, the bond expert of the United States Mortgage and Trust Company.

Mayor Taylor has been consulting this firm for some time regarding the most advantageous date for the bond sale. Their advice was to wait till after the election, and there is no doubt that this was sound counsel. There is every indication that the bonds will bring a good price. Seabrook and Mayer, who purchased the City Hall bonds, are anxious for these, too. They offered to send a representative from Cincinnati to confer with the city authorities, if they consented to sell the bonds privately.

HEADQUARTERS CLOSED.

Its Passing Was as Quiet as Its Work During the Campaign.

The National Republican Headquarters in this city are being closed up today. Secretary W. S. Hyams, who has been in charge, will go to Washington tomorrow. Mr. E. W. Pierce, who has been an assistant, has already returned to his home at Mt. Airy.

The work of the headquarters here during the campaign has been very quiet. There was the air about the place all along that seemed to indicate that nothing was to be done or wanted to be done. There seemed to be little more going on than is often seen in some county headquarters. The absence of funds which Uncle Mark was withholding to spend in the doubtful States, was a marked feature of the work in North Carolina this year.

Wanted to Lay Out the Southern.

The Two Tramps company came down from Winston this morning and went South. In attaching their car to the Southbound local the shifting engine jarred them a little more than was absolutely necessary, whereupon the manager came out swearing at the whole railroad company, and saying that his wife and several other members of the company had been "stove up," and he'd stand it any longer. The man seems to be a chronic kicker, and had trouble with almost every person he had any dealings with here. General Manager Gannon's private car was attached at the same time, but he took it easy.

This fractious manager tried to "call down" ticket agent John Graham a few days ago, but Johnnie wouldn't call.

Snow.

It is reported by some observer that the marked change of weather last night was accompanied by a little sprinkle of snow here, but few people noticed it. News comes that there was a good deal near Wilkesboro, some at Reidsville and Danville. Mr. Paul Welsh, who came in last night, reports that snow was falling right along when he passed Hillsboro.

Mr. Bryan Congratulates Mr. McKinley.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—W. J. Bryan forwarded the following telegram at noon today to President McKinley: "Hon. Wm. McKinley, President of the United States: 'At the close of another presidential campaign, it is my lot to congratulate you upon a second victory.' 'W. J. BRYAN.'"

Attention, Members of Guilford Lodge!

There will be an important meeting of this lodge tonight, and every member is requested to be on hand promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the second degree. All Pythians are cordially invited. By order of the Lodge. A. J. WILLIAMS, K. R. & S.

ATOTHER FIGHT IN KENTUCKY.

THE ELECTION WILL BE CARRIED TO THE COURT OF APPEALS.

If the Case is Not Heard Before January the Court May Be Dominated by a Republican Majority—National Republican Headquarters Give Instructions to Take up the Fight, and It Has Begun Today.

By Wire to The Telegram. Louisville, Nov. 9.—The election in this State will again be brought out in the court, and if the case does not reach the Court of Appeals before January, the Republicans may win, as they will have a majority of that court after January 7.

On the face of the returns Beckham has a plurality of 2,325. The official count may be made today and in every county it will be bitterly fought. At Republican headquarters it is said that with the ballots counted for him that should be counted, Yerkes would have a safe majority on the face of the returns. Mandamus proceedings are being instituted all over the State today to force the Goebel county boards to count the rejected ballots. The Republican National Committee has wired Chairman Combs to fight it out and contest the vote for McKinley and Yerkes. Today the Republicans claim five congressmen.

A BRIGHT LITTLE ACTRESS.

The Raleigh Post Thus Describes Miss Una Clayton.

The Una Clayton Company, which opens here Monday night will give each lady a free ticket when accompanied by one paid thirty cents ticket. The company, which has been in Raleigh this week, is thus endorsed by the Post:

"A large audience greeted the Una Clayton Company at the Academy of Music last evening. The Post's election bulletins were read during the performance, and they made a hit with the large audience. The returns favorable to Mr. Simmons were enthusiastically cheered, as were those favorable to Mr. Bryan.

"The play presented was 'The Sultan's Daughter,' a bright comedy, and the clever acting of the characters kept the audience convulsed with mirth.

"The central figure of the play, of course, was the Sultan's Daughter. This character was taken by Miss Clayton, who, in her eastern costume, was a rare picture of beauty. Miss Clayton was extremely graceful in her portrayal. She is, indeed, a bright and talented little actress, and has already thoroughly ingratiated herself in the hearts of Raleigh theater-goers."

The Times says: "One of the most pleasing features of this popular price company is the specialties, and they won repeated encores last evening. From the musical standpoint the company is unusually strong.

"Mr. Cohen in his specialties was fine and kept the audience convulsed."

He Passed.

At the civil service examination held in our city some time ago only one applicant was examined, Mr. Jas. M. Fields, of Climax, N. C. Advices from Washington were received by the postal authorities this morning stating that Mr. Fields had passed, his grade being 84 and a fraction.

Allah, Not the English.

I remember some five years ago I was up the Nile, away from big towns, and had a long talk with various sheiks and omdehs of villages. I was the only westerner present, and we all knew and trusted each other in a way. I asked if taxes were lighter. "Yes" was the answer. "Is water fairly distributed?" "Yes." "Are the soldiers paid properly?" "Yes." "Can you get justice against a pasha?" "Yes." "And who did all this?" "I finally asked, expecting to be told it was the English. There was silence; they are never in a hurry. Then an old sheik answered: 'Allah.'—London Standard.

Hopes.

"I want to get my picture taken," said the populist statesman. "Cabinet?" inquired the photographer. "Wouldn't be surprised, if Bryan's elected. I've been promised a tiptop office."—Philadelphia Press.

RECEIVING THE ELECTION RETURNS

Two Greensboro Men Make Some Observations in Washington City and Elsewhere—The Indignating Women of Washington.

Mr. D. H. Collins returned yesterday from a trip to Chicago. He was there during the hot political times. He thinks, that so far as he was able to find out, the sentiment there was largely against both Bryan and McKinley, though the latter got the vote. The people, he thinks, judging from their conversations, were unfriendly to McKinley but they were more afraid of Bryan, and voted for McKinley as a matter of safety and not because they liked him. The expressions of desire for a safe Democratic candidate for whom the people could vote as a rebuke to McKinley were everywhere present.

Mr. Collins was in Washington when the returns were coming in. He says that the sentiment there seemed to be for Bryan. Several women whose appearance indicated that they were ladies were standing before a bulletin board when the news that Mr. Bryan's own town and precinct had gone against him. One of them, as if unable to control her indignation longer, turned and said to Mr. Collins, "Mister, do you curse? If you do this is a cursing time."

At a station in Maryland, Mr. Collins says, twenty-five men on his train got off and voted while the train was waiting. The poll-holders didn't look to see whether they were registered or not, but let the ballots go in. Twenty of them voted for Bryan and five for McKinley.

Mr. R. R. King was in Washington while the returns were coming in. He also saw some very indignant lady sympathizers of Mr. Bryan. One lady remarked to her companions that "Nobody votes the Republican ticket but negroes, anyhow." Just then she espied Mr. King and appeared to be abashed as if fearing she had hurt the bystander's feelings. Mr. King noticed it and giving her a Chesterfieldian bow as he started to retreat, remarked, "That's all right madam, I'm a Democrat myself."

A SILVER BEDROOM.

Recently I went to a very "smart" luncheon given by one of Newport's richest women, writes Edith Lawrence, in Ledger Monthly. Her house is a dream of beauty and good taste. Her bedroom is the loveliest thing I ever saw. The whole room had the effect of white and silver. The woodwork was white, the wall paper white and silver. Her bedstead was white enamel, with bars and posts and knobs of silver. Her dressing table was white, with a beautiful old-fashioned standing oval mirror on it, in a carved silver frame. Instead of a small pin-cushion in the middle and trays for pins and stick pins, she had two good-sized sensible triangular pin cushions, covered with white satin embroidered in silver, and fitted into two upper corners of her dressing table; of course, her complete toilet set was silver. Then on her writing desk she had some things I had never seen before. A solid silver blotting book, a pad of blotting paper, with a silver back, as it were. Such an improvement on the pads with silver corners, which are always coming off. And she had a small silver bowl filled with sand, where her pins were stuck, to keep them from rusting. Her silver inkstand had a small tank attached, which her maid filled every day, and muckage pot, sponge holder and paper-cutter, all in silver. In her dressing-room, off from her bedroom, we saw the loveliest toilet outfit imaginable, and so many new things. She had a silver tooth-powder bottle, which had a sliding top, and was filled from the bottom; and a most attractive silver rack, with a place for a tooth brush for every day in the week. The tooth brushes were of ivory and were numbered, with tiny silver figures. There were silver pegs over the washstand, as well, to hang sponges, etc., on, and silver stands for toilet waters. Altogether I never saw such a complete outfit. The articles were all made to order for the lady in Vienna, but probably they can be duplicated here with slight variation in form and ornament, if one can afford the luxury.

STATEMENT BY MR. BRYAN.

EVERYBODY DID FULL DUTY AND HE HAS NO REPROACHES.

Will Continue Politics Till the End of Life as He Thinks It His Duty—Prosperity and the War Were the Potent Orms Which Won the People, but He is Satisfied that Republican Policies Will be Repudiated When Understood.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—Wm. J. Bryan tonight gave out the following statement concerning the election:

"The result was a surprise to me and the magnitude of the Republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete, but speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country.

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization. But while these would account for some of the Republican gains, they could not account for the widespread increase in the the Republican vote. The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared present conditions with the panic times of '93 to '96 and this argument had weight with those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal, 'Stand by the President while the war is on,' had a great deal of influence among those who did not realize that a war against the doctrine of self-government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform and having done our duty as we saw it, we have nothing to regret.

"We are defeated but not discouraged. The fight must go on. I am sure that Republican policies will be repudiated by the people when the tendency of these policies are fully understood. The contest between plutocracy and Democracy cannot end until one or the other is completely triumphant." Concerning himself Mr. Bryan said:

"I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my utmost to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, silver Republican and the anti-imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organization put forth their best effort. Our newspapers, our campaign speakers and our local organizations did their part also. I have no fault to find and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as I live. I believe it to be the duty of citizens to do so, and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a life-time of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me. I shall not be a senatorial candidate before the Legislature which has been elected. Senator Allen deserves the senatorship, which goes to the Populists. Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. W. H. Thompson are avowed candidates for the senatorship. They both deserve well of the party and I am too grateful to them for past support to stand in their way even if I desired a seat in the Senate."

Mr. Bryan says he has no other plans at present than to remain at home until he had recovered from the fatigue of campaigning. He denied the report that he would remove from Nebraska and make Texas his home.

There is complaint that pet dogs are being stolen frequently in some parts of town. It is supposed that it is the practice of negro boys.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

NOVEMBER TWENTY-NINTH TO BE OBSERVED.

Chairman Simmons calls a Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee—Official Canvass of Wake's Vote—Improvements in the Raleigh Hosiery Yarn Mill.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.
Raleigh, Nov. 9.—Governor Russell's Thanksgiving proclamation has been issued. It sets forth that the people of the State have every reason for gratitude, and calls upon them to praise God in the churches November 29, and to also remember the orphans and the needy.

It is believed that the dwelling and out houses of R. J. Buffalo in this county were set on fire by incendiaries.

Chairman Simmons calls a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee in the Senate chamber November 20, at 8:30 p. m. It is to be an important meeting and a full attendance is desired.

Secretary P. W. Pearsall, that faithful worker, left today for Newbern, his home. He did admirable work at headquarters here both in the August and November elections.

A negro convict was brought to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon from Tyrrell county, to serve six years for manslaughter—the killing of his wife. His defence was that he struck at her, she fell, he stumbled and fell upon her and thus broke her back.

In this county, the official canvass shows, Bryan receive 4,774 votes, McKinley 3,947; Pou, Democrat, for Congress 5,056, Giles, Republican, 3,792, Jenkins, Populist, 135; Simmons 2,544; Carr 2,385. There were 800 less Democratic votes than in August, and 400 Democrats who voted didn't vote for Bryan.

The State authorizes the Edgecombe Homestead and Loan Association to increase its capital stock from $20,000 to $50,000.

Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell, of the Odd Fellows, is at Roxboro to reorganize a lodge.

The Raleigh Hosiery Yarn Mill has put in 7,000 new mule spinners, taking the place of 6,000 old ones. The new ones will spin 30's. The work will be finer, faster and better than before.

The Una Clayton Company, now filling a week's engagement here, is the best popular-price show your correspondent has ever seen in North Carolina.

In Charlotte it seems the Bell telephone rate is $2.50 a month in residences. Here it is only $1.50.

Simmons said today his majority would be nearer 60,000 than 50,000. It also became clear that Carr had not carried a dozen counties. H. B. Varner would have won money on the bet that Simmons would carry 35 counties.

Ex-Judge Womock, who has been one of the valuable aides of Simmons said to me today: "The fact is the people forgot politics for the primary. Why we actually couldn't get news right here in this county, up to today, even as to the primary. I am heartily glad I opposed the primary. Only about 75 delegates were present when the State convention adopted the primary. It is exceedingly doubtful that we will have another primary. This one has developed the fact that a candidate is obliged to have some one to look after his interests at every polling place in the State. A poor man simply can't have this."

It is said the primary cost Gen. Carr something like $50,000. That looks like a large figure, but his liberality is well known. One of his friends told me he believed his campaign in Wake cost him as much as $1,600, while some persons put the sum as high as $2,500.

United States Commissioner John Nichols went yesterday to Smithfield, where he sat today with United States Commissioner Parker in the hearing of the charges against fifty Democrats of Johnston county. This is the case continued from last week, in which these leading Democrats were charged with intimidating a Populist last July. Commissioner Nichols, it appears, sat in an advisory capacity, at the suggestion of Claude Bernard. James H. Pou went to Smithfield today to appear for the defendants.

United States Marshal Dockery has gone to Nashville to place in the penitentiary six Federal convicts; two from here and four from Wilmington; all negroes.

Nell—"So Maud married old Gotrox. Why, he is a perfect slaye to money, Belle." Belle—"Well, you can depend upon Maude to emancipate him."

Sillicus—"I made a bet that if McKinley was elected I would wear a straw hat all winter." Cynicus—"Well, you'll find it easier to talk through."

PRINCE OF WALES' BIRTHDAY.

A Great Celebration Throughout the British Empire.

Special to The Telegram.

London, Nov. 9.—Throughout England, Scotland and Wales, and in the loyal sections of Ireland, the bells are ringing merrily today, and flags are fluttering in the breeze in celebration of the 58th birthday of the Prince of Wales. In the city the demonstration was of a pronounced character, the display of bunting being very profuse. In South Africa, Greater Australia, Canada and India, the manifestation of pleasure at the happy return of the day on which the future king of Great Britain was born, has been hailed with great delight. In the telegrams of congratulation that poured in upon the Prince this morning, all the crowned heads of Europe, President Loubet, of France, the Premiers of all British colonies, the Viceroy of India, President McKinley of the United States, President Diaz of Mexico, and ambassadors in all countries, joined in wishing continued health and happiness to the First Gentleman of Europe.

TO HONOR JACKSON'S SOLDIERS.

Daughters of the Revolution Looking After Remains of Creek Victims.

Special to The Telegram.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Eighty-seven years ago today, fifteen Tennessee veterans belonging to General Andrew Jackson's army were killed at Talladega, Ala., in battle with the Creek Indians. The bodies were buried in one grave after the battle, and there they have rested since November 9, 1813. Recently the Daughters of the American Revolution started a movement to have the bodies removed and buried in Oak Hill cemetery at Talladega, where the graves could be properly marked. The remains taken up filled a box four feet long, eighteen inches wide and twelve inches deep. It is proposed erecting a handsome marble monument over the graves bearing the names of the dead, and Congress will be asked to appropriate $10,000 toward erecting the monument.

Some men become pessimistic because a girl refuses them and others develop the same symptoms because she didn't.

Not a Sign of Insanity.

Scene—New York Central train en route to Utica, where is located the State Asylum for the Insane.

Time—The present.

At Rochester enter a melancholy-appearing man handcuffed to an officer.

At Palmyra enter a second melancholy-looking man with attendant and take seats immediately behind first comers.

Then ensued the following:

First Melancholy Man to Second Melancholy Man—Where to?

Second M. M.—Utica.

A long pause.

First M. M.—Insane?

Second M. M.—Yes.

A long pause.

First M. M.—What on?

Second M. M.—Religion.

A very long pause.

First M. M.—Wot did they tell ye?

Second M. M.—That 99 per cent. of mankind would be damned.

Long pause.

First M. M.—Believe it?

Second M. M.—Yes.

A pause of greater length, then:

Second M. M. (to first M. M.)—

Where to?

First M. M.—Utica.

A long pause.

Second M. M.—Insane?

First M. M.—Yep.

A longer pause.

Second M. M.—What on?

First M. M.—Politics.

Long pause.

Second M. M.—What did they tell you?

First M. M.—Told me that if Bryan was elected the dollar would be worth only 53 cents.

Long and thoughtful pause.

Second M. M.—Believe it?

First M. M.—Yep.

Second M. M. (without any pause)—You are not insane. You're only a d—d fool.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1900.

AFTER TAMMANY'S SCALP.

The Herald says that the slim thirty thousand majority that Croker was able to muster has greatly rejoiced the enemies of Croker and Tammany as run by him, and that they have already begun arrangements for the union of all the enemies of legalized vice in a crusade against Tammany in the election which occurs next fall. It is alleged that sound money Democrats and Democrats who are dissatisfied with croker are willing to unite with the element represented by men like Bishop Potter and Dr. Parkhurst, for the purpose of getting control of the city and clearing out the corruption of Tammany. The Herald says:

War upon protected vice in this city is to begin with promptness and be prosecuted with vigor, too. The adversaries of lawlessness and blackmail, who have undertaken the task of purifying the city, have purposely avoided attracting attention, while the political campaign was hot. Now that the election is over, and their motives cannot be misconstrued, they announce that they will take up the fight and push it to the bitter end, regardless of whom it hits.

Bishop Potter is, of course, the chief figure of interest in the campaign against vice. But it now appears that not only will the church forces of which he is the leader gather for the attack, but the entire body of those who oppose vice and blackmail will rally in one united coherent army, and fight shoulder to shoulder. Ecclesiastical and civic interests will all join in a crusade, which is to be pre-eminently non-partisan.

While the movement may be, and assuredly is so far as the Bishop Potter element is concerned, not partisan, right along with the incipency of the movement, there are signs that the Republicans will attempt to turn the movement to their own account. On Wednesday The Sun declared for Seth Low for mayor, and Platt, the boss of the State, is said to be pushing along the same idea. In the campaign of 1897 Seth Low was the reformer's candidate, running independently; General B. F. Tracy was the Republican candidate; Henry George, whose tragic death a few hours before the election, stampeded his followers, was the labor candidate, and Roht. A. Van Wyck was Croker's man. The campaign was strenuous. Low was in the way of the Republicans, and they were in his way. Tammany swept the deck with an enormous majority, balloting more votes than all the other candidates combined. Then began the carnival of licensed crime which culminated in the ice trust scandal. It is claimed that a canvass of the Eighth assembly district disclosed the fact that two-thirds of it alone sixty-two disreputable houses are flourishing, and that half of the money used in the Bryan celebration was raised by assessing vicious people.

The moral reformers may be mistaken in their enthusiasm, in the estimate of their strength, but it would appear that the fact that the Republicans are willing to take up Seth Low, the independent candidate of three years ago and nominate him, is a testimony to the strength or the reform sentiment. Tammany under Croker is the most disreputable political organization in the world, and it was one of the hard loads that Mr. Bryan had to carry. If the Republicans are willing to take up Dr. Seth Low on his platform and elect him, it will be a distinct gain to the city and the country at large.

The doctors are giving a good deal of advice now about the health of the Democratic party. It appears to us that it needs an inoculation of the virus of common sense, and then a long rest spell till things readjust themselves. Then it will have to quit taking its position on given question because somebody else has taken an opposite one. It will have to quit predicting disaster, ruin and damnation in case its man is not put in. It will have to take some regard for the facts of history and human experience in assuming its positions and leave off following impractical enthusiasts whose statesmanship is embraced in the vain effort of making all questions square with a few supposed ideas of men who thought for the circumscribed bands of a hundred years ago. This much being accomplished it will be ready to deal with any question that may come up in proper shape and will have gained the confidence of the people.

His Royal Worthiness, the Prince of Wales, is today celebrating his 58th birthday. His latest act of statesmanship was the dismissal of his American jockey, Tod Sloan. Poor old Queen Victoria is even now in feeble health, and except for a kind stroke of Providence Wales will soon be king of the greatest empire the world has ever seen. It has been customary for princes to signalize their ascension to the throne with some act of graciousness or some deed commensurate with their idea of statesmanship or philanthropy. There has not yet been introduced into England that outrageous American idea of the shirt waist for men. Nothing could be so appropriate in Wales, and nothing so consonant with his past accomplishments, as that he should make his first official act a proclamation against this unorthodox piece of American plebeianism, and warning his obedient subjects against it.

We were informed time and again that the Republic's last expiring breath would come simultaneously with the counting of the last vote that elected Mr. McKinley. In as much as the counting was finished some three days ago, and the crash hasn't come, we suggest that it be deferred till the 4th of July. There is something so poetical about dying on one's natal day.

Mr. Bryan has always been a square man, but he never did a straighter thing than when he said, "I made my fight for the presidency and I lost. I am not going to take any other men's positions from them."

The esteemed Wilmington Star finds consolation in the statement that the Republican party has got to bear the full responsibility for the next four years.

If North Carolina is to have another congressman because of the increased population, we hope he won't be located in the Eighth and Ninth districts.

Mr. Bryan didn't do the congratulation act half as gracefully as General Carr did.

Muggins—"Do you really hate him as much as you pretend to?" Bugins—"Hate him! Why, man, I hate him with a hatred that a barber feels for a man who lets his whiskers grow."

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. PRAYERS TO INK GOD.

Discovery That Indian Ink Is Not Made in India—Can Now Be Made by Anyone.

Indian ink is not made in India, nor do any of the materials used in the manufacture come from that country, says London Answer. It was first made in China 8,000 years ago by a Chinese alchemist, Tientschen by name, who, while experimenting upon some nostrum for the ternal preservation of life, accidentally produced a black substance in the form of a liquid paint or varnish. This was the first Indian ink.

Until recently the process of manufacture has been a secret; but it has at last been discovered and the ink can now be made by anyone.

The black pigment, which forms the base of the ink is the soot obtained by burning lac and pine charcoal. This soot is powdered finely and mixed with fishglue, isinglass, or hornglue, and sometimes, in making the finer qualities of ink, pearls are boiled in glue.

Sometimes dried ox tongues are added to give the ink a purple tint, and the bark of the peppermint trees has been used to produce a tinge of blue. The ink is carefully molded, dried and packed in wormwood leaves, with lime or ashes until well-seasoned.

Sepia, the coloring liquid of the cuttlefish, was not added to the ink originally, but as the best Indian ink in use at present has a brownish tint, it is evident that sepia is used. Sepia alone is used frequently in China in preference to the black ink.

In China all "good" Indian ink is supposed to be inhabited by gods, to whom prayers are sometimes addressed. There are so many gods that it is difficult to find lodgings for them all; they are billeted therefore upon any convenient article, such as a stick of Indian ink.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

GREENSBORO LUMBER CO.

FURNISHING NOTES.

Neat and Tasteful Adjuncts to the Completion of a Household.

The new prairie grass matings are simply delightful; they come in soft greens, reds, blues and ecrus, the natural tints of the long, wiry prairie grasses of the west, which are now the proving sources of income to the farmers. Formerly these grasses were supposed to be an unmitigated evil, says Ladies' World.

Prairie grass matting is much heavier than the Chinese and Japanese products, and much more durable; they all have the same clean and fragrant smell that makes them so acceptable as floor coverings. Prairie grass matting is full yard wide and costs 40 cents per yard.

Never were there shown more beautiful lamps than are now made. Especially notable are the piano lamps of welded wrought iron and copper in carmine finish. The antique copper and carmine copper are also beautifully combined in other models. The carmine finish, royal copper is not new, but it is ever beautiful and has never before been commonized.

Very attractive portieres in green and soft dull crimson in fish-net, seine pattern, have been selling for three dollars each; the meshes are as large as those of a coarse seine, and the curtains are finished top and bottom by handsome tassels.

Another style in a sort of cross-striped open work pattern comes in rich reds and deep blues, and has upper and lower finish of tassels. The material is cotton, a sort of soft cord, and the colors are claimed to be fast; they drape very gracefully and need no rings.

A handsome top border for a plain curtain, that is, a curtain without figures, may be made by taking a strip of burlap having a figure, and outlining this figure with gold thread and then powdering it with colored spangles.

FROZEN DESSERTS.

Three Dishes That Will Be Appreciated by the Guest in Warm Weather.

For hickory nut ice cream make a boiled custard of one pint of milk, 1 1/2 cups of sugar, four eggs and one-third of a teaspoonful of salt. When it is cold add one quart of cream and two cups of hickory nut meats that have been powdered fine in a mortar; then freeze, says the New York Tribune.

Coffee ice cream frozen in a cylindrical mold, with the center filled with lemon ice, is an attractive and delicious dessert. For the ice cream mix two tablespoonfuls of arrowroot with half a cupful of cold milk. Beat four eggs well and mix with it. Then beat one pint of milk and pour over the mixture and add four cupfuls of white sugar. When it is cool add two quarts of cream. Put it into the freezer, and when it is partly frozen turn in two cupfuls of strong coffee and freeze thoroughly. Pack it in a cylindrical mold.

For the lemon ice mix together the juice of six lemons, two cupfuls of sugar and three cupfuls of water. Strain and turn it into the freezer. When the ice and salt are packed add to it two cupfuls of sweet milk and freeze at once. Fill it into the center of the coffee ice cream.

Maple mousse is easily and quickly made. Put one pint of maple sirup into a saucepan with the yolks of eight eggs. Stir over the fire until the sirup thickens, then remove at once and stir until it is cold. Fold into it one quart of whipped cream and pack in a mold in ice and salt for five hours.

TRINITY'S ALUMNI

Two Distinguished Ones Elected to High Office This Week.

Correspondence of The Telegram.
Durham, Nov. 8.—The North Carolina section of the National Chemical Association will meet in the Crowell Science Hall Friday evening. The Association has a large membership and it is expected that all the institutions in the State will be represented. President B. W. Kilgore, State Chemist, Vice President, Dr. W. J. Martin, Davidson College, Secretary and Treasurer, C. B. Williams, Assistant State Chemist.

Rev. J. E. Gray, of Charlotte, has donated to the library a collection of valuable books. Mr. Gray's interest in the growth of the library is very highly appreciated.

Hon. F. M. Simmons, who was nominated for United States Senator in the primaries, is a graduate of Trinity, class '73. He has been for several years an honored member of the Board of Trustees, and has also been a patron of the College. Hon. J. H. Small, who was re-elected to Congress, is also an Alumnus of the College. The institution has a pardonable pride when her alumni are called to fill positions of honor and trust.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeit commit fraud. Honest men will not deceive you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing piles, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Fashionable dress makers are one kind of social reformers.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT.

Is evied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Some courtships end in marriage and others revert to the courts.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

He—"Where shall we go on our wedding trip?" She—"What do you say to Washington?" He—"Oh, that's capital."

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup you can realize how grateful mothers are for One Minute Cough Cure which gives relief as soon as it is administered. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles.

Wigg—"Why are you so jubilant over election? I thought you were a Bryan man." Wagg—"So I am. But you know that sore-eyed, mangy dog of my wife's? Well, I prevailed on her to bet him on Bryan."

With the deaf mute actions speak louder than words.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The man who blows his own horn naturally comes to blows.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, better, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

Every stage has its wings, but it takes an angel to make them flutter.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

The Chronic Bachelor, who, of course, doesn't know anything about these things, says its a wise man who convinces his wife that she has convinced him, an then does as he pleases.

Any shoe dealer will tell you that a slippery customer is not always the one who buys slippers.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation searches out and removes all manner of poisons from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impurities. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

We are doing great good to suffering humanity through our consulting department, and invite you to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.

SCROFULA

Is "bad blood." A little break of the skin becomes a sore; you come to have a good many perhaps. There are other manifestations of scrofula.

This is the plain one.

There is a germ to be killed.

You kill it with vital force.

What is that?

It's the power that life has. Full life is strong; scant life is weak.
